TOOLKIT FOR TALKING WITH YOUR SCHOOL DISTRICT & EVALUATING THEIR SEX ED CURRICULUM

Remember, School Board members are elected, and they are people just like you. Don't be intimidated.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETINGS ARE PUBLIC AND THEIR SCHEDULES ARE POSTED ONLINE.

1 TIME LIMIT

Public comments are usually received at the front end of the board meeting. At this time, the Board asks no questions. They just take public comments.

2 REMAIN COMPOSED

Be organized and non-confrontational to clearly communicate your concerns within the time limit. Meetings are also recorded for future reference.

3 PROVIDE SOLUTIONS

Offer alternative solutions and an action plan. Have materials for them to review re-stating your concerns and your specific requested actions.

MEETING TIPS:

- Bring others with you for strength in numbers.
- Clearly state who you are and your concerns.

REQUEST YOUR SCHOOL BOARD:

- Contact their legislators to vote NO to CSE mandate.
- Defend local control over sex ed curriculum.
- Make ALL sex ed curriculum available for parental review online in advance, with a written policy providing these links for each grade level.

HOW TO RESEARCH THE SEX ED CURRICULUM IN YOUR SCHOOL

Schedule an appointment with the Director of Curriculum to review the sex ed curriculum.

QUESTIONS TO ASK THE DIRECTOR:

- Collect names of textbooks and curriculum.
- Ask to view any videos and slide curriculum.
- Ask to view all handouts given in class.
- Collect the names of guest educators invited into the classroom.
- Does Planned Parenthood or its affiliates teach in the classroom? Are PP posters or other sex ed posters in the school and what are the messages?
- Which schools celebrate LGBTQ days and designated months?
- What activities are students encouraged to participate in during LGBTQ recognition days?
- What books, videos and history lessons are taught relating to LGBTQ?
- How are children treated who wish not to participate in LGBTQ celebrations?
- What happens to those who bully students who don't participate in LGBTQ activities?
- What are the titles of Young Adult (YA) books recommended or being read in class? Most YA books have inappropriate themes: https://readaloudrevival.com/132/)

FAMILIARIZE YOURSELF WITH THE CSE ANALYSIS TOOL

https://tinyurl.com/y42ludkb

YOU CAN KNOW IT IS CSE IF IT:

- Desensitizes children to sexual things, and refers them to harmful resources.
- Teaches children how to consent.
- Promotes anal and oral sex.
- Promotes homosexual/bisexual behavior.
- Promotes sexual pleasure.
- Promotes solo/mutual masturbation.
- Promotes inappropriate condom use.
- Promotes premature sexual autonomy and activity w/o consequences.
- Does not establish abstinence as the expected standard.
- Promotes contraception & abortion to young children with no information about risks and side effects.
- Promotes peer-to-peer sex and sexual rights.
- Undermines parental rights. and values.